The opportunity is real

Consumers expect more relevant and personalized ads.

Relevant ads become less intrusive, respecting users' attention and time and are more inclined to drive action.

When messaging is consistent, consumers have a better brand experience.

ADVERTISER NEEDS

01 More connected consumer journeys.

02 Consistent and sequential messaging across ad formats.

03 Reduce user ad fatigue.

From purchase funnels to the predictive path to purchase

Today's consumers follow a more complex, non-linear path to purchase than ever before.

Brands need to adapt by providing hyper-relevant messaging and seamless experiences across channel.

Impression based remarketing

Leave a lasting impression and drive greater efficiencies across the full funnel

01

Improve brand awareness and ad recall

Enhance your brand's visibility and leave a lasting impression based on ad exposure.

02

Connect the consumer journey

Create more meaningful and relevant connections with sequential messaging.

03

Increase performance

More personalized ads lead to improved performance for your campaigns.

Personalize your message based on ad exposure

For example, if someone sees your video ad, you can follow up with a sequential, relevant message in display, native, video, or search.

Increased performance

A faster path to drive towards your goals

Exposure drives lift at each stage of the funnel—from awareness to conversion.

Users exposed to Audience ads are¹:

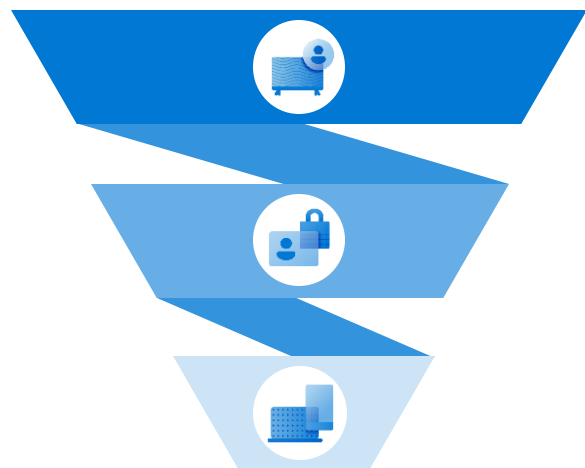

Microsoft Internal Data, January-March 2024. Results may vary for each advertiser based on campaign settings, targeted audiences, and other factors. Lift metrics represent an average of all advertisers with completed lift studies to date. These advertisers may be a non-representative sample of all advertisers on the marketplace. Lift measured between exposed users and a control group of eligible unexposed users, with lift represented on a per-user basis. Average user count per advertiser study = 1.6M. Rounded to whole number. Compared to users who were not exposed.

Impression based remarketing

Frequently asked questions

Frequently asked questions (1/2)

How does impression-based remarketing work?	Impression-based remarketing lists are audience lists that allow you to target users based on the ads they have been exposed to within a defined period of time.
What campaign types can I build impression-based remarketing lists from?	You can build impression-based remarketing lists based on exposure to search ads, shopping ads, display ads, native ads, online video ads, connected TV ads and ads from Performance Max campaigns.
Which campaign types can I use impression-based lists on to retarget users?	You can use these lists to target users with all of the ad types listed above, except for connected TV. You can only build lists based on CTV exposure but cannot target users on CTV with these lists.
Do I need a UET tag to use impression-based remarketing?	No, a UET tag is not required for this feature.
Can I apply bid adjustments to impression-based remarketing lists?	Yes, you can apply bid adjustments as normal and it is recommended to use bid adjustments to increase your chances of showing your ad to relevant users.
Can I exclude impression-based remarketing lists from certain campaigns?	Yes, you can add impression-based remarketing lists as exclusions from campaigns or ad groups.

Frequently asked questions (2/2)

What are the maximum and minimum membership durations for impression-based remarketing lists?

Advertisers can specify a list duration between 1 and 30 days. The default membership duration is set to 7 days. We recommend setting a membership duration of 7 days or more.

Can I create an impression-based remarketing list from a specific campaign or ad group?

Yes, in order to use this feature, you must select from which campaign or ad group you wish to create the remarketing list.

Can I share impression-based remarketing lists across multiple accounts?

Yes, you can share these lists across multiple accounts by selecting this option when creating the list.
